Part 6: Supporting Materials

Please provide the following materials along with your completed application form (note that Project Fairness may request additional supplemental materials):

- 1) A record of your enrollment or application to the educational program the Project Fairness Scholarship would support. We will consider providing scholarships for programs that you haven't yet enrolled in at the time of your Project Fairness application, but will require that this record be submitted before the scholarship is awarded.
- 2) A letter of recommendation from an adult (such as a teacher, case worker, foster parent, employer, supervisor or mentor) who can attest to your character. Please provide their contact information as well.

Note: Your application is not complete without the record of enrollment or application, and the letter of recommendation from an adult, described in Part 6. Applications that do not include these elements will not be eligible to receive the Project Fairness Scholarship.

A part of our mission is to spread awareness regarding the issues that foster youth grapple with and raise awareness regarding the need for scholarships like ours. To that end, we share the success stories of the scholars we assist, and we generally ask our scholarship awardees to provide a version of a biography that we can publish. In the event that you are awarded a scholarship from us, by submitting this application for a Project Fairness scholarship, you are consenting to us publicizing certain information about you such as your name, school of attendance and course of study on our website, social media, fundraising materials, and email campaigns. If you have any concerns about confidentiality, please reach out to us before submitting your application, and we would be happy to explore options with you for what feels okay and safe such as having a profile with no photo, no last name, etc., or even no public profile at all.**

By submitting this application, I certify that I understand the disclosures contained in this application form, and that the information provided about me in this application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, I authorize the release of information about me to Project Fairness, Inc. and I consent to Project Fairness, Inc. verifying the accuracy of the information I provided. I also understand that if I am awarded a scholarship by Project Fairness, the scholarship funds must be used within the fall 2025 to spring 2026 academic year, although extensions of this expiration date for use of scholarship funds may be granted on a case by case basis at the sole discretion of the board of Project Fairness upon consideration of the attendant facts and circumstances.
